

PRACTICAL INFORMATION

To be considered for admission to the ‘Introduction to the Fundamentals’, you must :

- Be at least 18 years old
- Hold a high school level diploma
- Speak English fluently

We do not require knowledge of the French language or previous culinary experience. We encourage candidates with previous culinary, pastry or bread-baking training and/or experience to contact us to make sure that the ‘Introduction to the Fundamentals’ is a good choice for them, as the training is designed for beginners in the field.

The ‘Introduction to the Fundamentals’ requires good physical stamina – these programs involve long hours, working standing up, carrying heavy loads in a sometimes stressful environment.

Intakes

- French Pastry: 7th June – 18th June 2021
- French Cuisine: 7th June – 25th June 2021
- French Bread Baking: 25th June – 9th July 2021
- Chocolate and Confectionery: 21st June – 2nd July 2021

Tuition

The tuition fees for each ‘Introduction to the Fundamentals’ are as follows:

- French Pastry: 3000 Euros
- French Cuisine: 4500 Euros
- French Bread Baking: 3000 Euros
- Chocolate and Confectionery: 3000 Euros

Our prices all include tax.

A deposit representing 50% of tuition is required to reserve a space on the program once a candidate has been admitted. The deadline for the payment is stated in the contract. Scholarships and financial aid are not available through FERRANDI Paris.

Accommodation

FERRANDI-Paris has no on-campus housing, however the school offers advice on finding suitable accommodations. A list of housing possibilities and contacts is available to all candidates once they have confirmed their enrollment.